

- Quick Reference -

FISHING LINE GUIDE

*A Quick Reference Line Guide For When You're Wondering
'What Type Of Line Should I Use?'*

LINE TYPE

SPECS

USES

Monofilament

*Most Affordable
Overall Use Line*

Overall Cost

**$

- Floats
- Has Stretch To It
- Available In Dozens Of Colors
- Less Sensitive:
Harder To Detect Bites

Great For: Poppers, Wakebaits and other small Topwater Lures, Small Trout Spinners, Float Fishing such as Bobbers, etc.,

Fluorocarbon

Most Invisible/Sensitive Line

Overall Cost

**$$$

- Sinks
- Most Invisible Line
- Minimal Stretch
- More Sensitive:
Easier To Detect Bites

Great For: Crankbaits, Jerkbaits, Rattle Traps, Swimbaits, Tube Jigs, Agitators, other Weighted Jigs, etc.

Braid

Most Durable /Long Lasting Line

Overall Cost

**$$$

- Floats
- Zero Stretch
- Available In Bright Or Dark Colors
- No Memory/ Line Twist

Great For: Buzzbaits, Walking Baits, Frogs, and other Topwater Lures. Texas Rigs, Rattle Traps, and Chatterbaits in Heavy Cover such as Grass and Willows, etc.